

Dec 29, 2016

An Atmosphere of Entertainment .. Fun and Competition among the AAU Family

As a team spirit, the family of Al Ain University of Science and Technology gathered in an atmosphere of entertainment and competition as a part of a workshop entitled "Teamwork" in Abu Dhabi and Al Ain campuses, organized by the Human Recourses Unit and in collaboration with the Continuing Education Center, presented by trainer Hazem Hussain for the administrative staff, who were divided evenly into groups to compete against each other in a competitive and thinking games accompanied by spirited music to stimulate them with energy, all of these were exists in an atmosphere of suspense, enjoyment, diversity and unity.

This workshop comes from the belief of Al Ain University of Science and Technology in importance of entertaining the staff, breaking the daily routine and reduction the work pressure and tension, emphasizing the importance of teamwork as the power of the individual and society, work to develop social skills and working spirit in one team.

In his speech, Dr. Noor El Deen Atatreh –AAU chancellor- has expressed his pleasure to organize this workshop that will entertain and motivate the staff's and renew the energy and vitality of them. He emphasized that the work environment in Al Ain University of Science and Technology is a multi-cultural environment, So teamwork is an important factor to enhance communication, understanding and establish cooperation between the employees in the same institution to create a positive environment in the university and upgrading it. Hoping that the vitality and the positive energy will be their helpmate in work.

Press Release Link