

Jan 25, 2017

A Delegation from the University of LAVERNE visited Al Ain University to discuss the cooperation aspects

The Chancellor of Al Ain University of Science and Technology Dr. Noor El Deen Atatreh and the AAU President Prof. Ghaleb El Refae received a delegation from the University of LAVERNE in the United States consists of: the President of the university Dr. Devorah Lieberman, Mr. Tony Revier –Member, Board of Trustees and Dr. Issam Ghazzawi –Professor of Management in the College of Business and Public Management. Where this visitors came to discuss the prospects of cooperation and relations consolidation to serve the mutual interests between the two parties.

Both parties discussed number of common interest issues in the framework of the two institutions seeking to achieve their objectives to strengthen active participation in the community and to cooperate with other parties who seek to advance and develop education.

Dr. Atatreh said that this visit promotes the interests of Al Ain University of Science and Technology in developing international relations, knowledge channels and scientific exchanges between the Al Ain University and various scientific institutions.

For his part, Prof. El Refae stressed on the importance of this visit as a part of exchanging culture and knowledge between Al Ain University of Science and Technology and the University of LAVERNE which would open new cooperation horizons between the two universities.

Press Release Link