

Feb 06, 2017

AAU President receives a delegation from Malaysian universities

In a fraternal visit to discuss the cooperation prospects, Prof. Ghaleb El Refae –AAU President– received a delegation from Malaysian universities.

The aims of the visit were to consolidate relations, to discuss prospects of cooperation between Al Ain University of Science and Technology and the Malaysian universities, In addition to discuss the possibility of joint research which would promote scientific research that Al Ain University of Science and Technology is seeking to pay attention to the scientific researches and support it continuously.

The delegation visited the university's facilities and met the college's deans, as well as they praised the equipment available at the university for faculty members and students.

For his part, Prof. El Refae greeted the delegation visit saying that Al Ain University has always sought to consolidate internal and external relations with all academic institutions and stressed on the keenness of the university to strengthen its position among other universities, which makes Al Ain University of Science and Technology in the advanced ranks among other universities in the United Arab Emirates, wishing that there will be a future cooperation between all the sides.

Prof. Abdulhafeed Belarabi -AAU Vice President- recieved the delegation in AAU Abu Dhabi Campus, stressing on the importance of this visit in the field of consolidating the cooperation between the Al Ain University and other universities.

Press Release Link