Enthusiastic and Competitive Volleyball Championship for Colleges

Within an enthusiastic atmosphere, AAU's students from different colleges participated in the "Volleyball Championship for colleges", organized by the Deanship of Student Affairs –Al Ain Campus. The students competed for the top three places.

The College of Education, Humanities and Social Sciences won the first place, the second place was for the College of Mass Communication and Media while the College of Engineering won the third place.

It is worth to mention that Al Ain University of Science and Technology organizes the Volleyball Championship periodically, in addition to the sports activities as a part of its concern to pay attention to student's activity, and to meet all the physical and psychological needs of students.
