

May 01, 2017

The College of Law students won the First Place in the Initiatives for Legal Excellence

The College of Law students of Al Ain University of Science and Technology got advanced places within their participation in Maktoum Bin Mohammed Initiatives for Legal Excellence, which was held under the patronage of H.H Sheikh Maktoum Bin Mohammed Bin Rashid Al Maktoum –Deputy Ruler of Dubai- and considered as one of the most important initiatives in the law field and included, the Moot Court, Students Research, scholarships, Tamkeen initiative.

Student Mohammad Rafel Suliman won the first place at the level of law colleges in UAE in the first aspect of the competition, Where Student Abdullah Abdullatef and student Salam Al Qasem won the third Place in the second aspect of the competition, where Prof. Mustafa Qandeel supervised their work. The College's students also had a distinguished participation in Maktoum Bin Mohammed Al Maktoum Moot Court competition.

The initiative aims to develop practical aspects of legal knowledge among law students, practice the law activities in real, in addition, to encourage their ambition to work in the judicial field.

Press Release Link