AAU launches the Online “FIFA 21” Championship

The Deanship of Student Affairs at Al Ain University organized the online FIFA 21 PlayStation Championship for students of both campuses, Al Ain and Abu Dhabi.

30 students from different colleges participated in the champ which lasted for 5 days, and student Mohammad Sameer from the College of Engineering at Abu Dhabi campus, won the first place.

This championship came as part of the university’s endeavor to provide recreational activities for its students within an enjoyable youth environment, with the aim of spreading the culture of electronic games, stimulating the abilities and mental skills of our students, revitalizing and developing them, improving their performance, boosting their energies, and fueling the spirit of competition among them.
