

Apr 18, 2022

After a gap for two years.. the Ramadan vibes are back at Al Ain University

After a gap of two years due to the circumstances of the Corona pandemic, the Al Ain University family, Al Ain and Abu Dhabi campuses, spent fun times through the Annual Iftar Gathering, organized by the university to strengthen the bonds of communication, cooperation, love, and tolerance. It was attended by Dr. Noor El Deen Atatreh- AAU Chancellor, Prof. Ghaleb El Refae- AAU President, the Vice Presidents, Deans, Deputy Deans, and a number of academic and administrative members.

Dr. Atatreh indicated that the University is keen to organize the Iftar gathering yearly for employees on the occasion of the holy month, but due to the restrictions imposed by the Corona pandemic, Iftar has been prevented from being held in person during the past two years and was organized virtually, So, we are happy today with the return of the Ramadan atmosphere among the family

Prof. El Refae emphasized that organizing social events enhances the communication and familiarity between the employee, encourage them to work hard, and enhance communication among them.

After having the Iftar, the event was overwhelmed with an atmosphere of fun and entertainment by offering a range of cultural and entertaining competitions in which the employees participated in the spirit of vitality and enthusiasm.

Al Ain University is continuously seeking to organize such events to promote cooperation, love, brotherhood, and communication between employees, which reflects positively on their performance.

Press Release Link